

Amber Windham Campbell
amberkw24@gmail.com (336)592--0578
1105 Ralph Drive, Cary NC 27511

Work Experiences:

July 2014 to Present

LRC Indoor Testing and Research, Cary, NC
Environmental Specialist

Conduct environmental surveys and field assessments.

June 2012 to April 2013

Hospitality Education Services, NC
Training Specialist

Delivered Food Safety Certification Training for Food Service managers and employees. Assisted with planning and developing training materials. Maintained dual role status with the National Restaurant Association as an Instructor and Proctor. Responsible for distribution and collection of secure class materials. Responsible for administering exam in an appropriate and secure environment.

January 2005 to May 2012

Durham County, Durham, NC
Environmental Health Specialist

Protected public health through education, surveillance, consulting, inspection and enforcement of local and state environmental health laws and regulations. Motivated food service managers and employees to implement and utilize good food safety practices. Coordinated with managers to evaluate and develop food safety programs specific to their operation. Responded to and resolved complaints in a timely and efficient manner. Offered outstanding organizational skills and work ethic to complete work assignments both independently and in a team environment. Consistently exceeded expectations in participating and contributing to committees and special projects beyond the normal workload. Served one year as secretary/treasurer for the North Central Environmental Health District involving maintaining membership roster, fees, and expenses.

January 2004 – January 2005

Restoration Sciences, Cary, NC
Admin/Lab Assistant

Assisted with the collection and processing of environmental samples for indoor air quality assessment. Prepared reports and invoices for completed jobs. Served as first line of contact for incoming inquiries.

September 2001 – August 2003

National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences
RTP, NC
Biological Science Lab Aid

Performed daily animal health checks. Maintained animal health report database. Maintained surgical suite and drug inventory. Assisted with lab animal surgery and preparation. Assisted with compiling and preparing complex research papers and poster presentations.

Education:

January 2001 – May 2004

North Carolina State University, Raleigh, NC
B.S. Animal Science

Graduated Cum Laude
Completed College of Agriculture and Life Sciences Honors Program

Registration and Certifications:

Registered Environmental Health Specialist (REHS) – North Carolina Board of Environmental Health Specialists Examiners (Registration # 2047)

Certified ServSafe Instructor and Registered ServSafe Examination Proctor – National Restaurant Association Educational Foundation

Certified Water Damage Restoration Technician (WRT) – IICRC, Institute of Inspection Cleaning and Restoration Certification (#210532)